CHARLEROI MAN WOULDN'T STAND FOR "REBEL TALK"

Speaks Out in Meeting at Moose Convention in Baltimore

OBJECTS TO STATEMENTS

Declares He Will Take the Matter Up With Supreme Officials

"I didn't come to this convention to hear such rebel talk, and I don't propose to listen to it" shouted J. L. Reeves of Charleroi in the national convention of the Order of Moose in Baltimore yesterday. Mr. Reeves, who is a member of the undertaking firm of Reaves and Reeves, is representing the Charleroi lodge of the order of Moose at the Baltimore convention, and his wrthful exclamation was prompted when a spokesman for the Clarksburg, West Virginia, lodge was presenting a gavel to the Baltimore lodge made out of a bedpost from Stonewall Jackson's old home

The speech was being made by E. J. Henning, a delegate from the Milwaukee, Wis., lodge, and some eulogistic remarks concerning the great Confederate general and the cause be represented, executed the fire of the Charleroi man.

Instantly there was a hubub in the convention over Mr. Reeves' interruption, with cries of "Sit down" and "Put him out!" but the Charleroi man was insistent and stood by his colors "I'm a northern man!" he shouted," and protest against dragging such talk into this meeting!" Finally the din became so great that Mr. Reeves could no longer be heard, and he wrathfully stalked out of the hall, declaring that he would not let the matter drop but would appeal his case to the supreme Judge of the organization

"I shall take it up to the supreme officers," declared Mr. Reeves. "It is a matter that calls for their consideration."

One of the statements of Representatives Henning, the speaker, that Mr. Reeves objected to was this:

"The south fought for the same cause we Moose are fighting for today, and that is the protection of the white race." This was too revolutionary for Mr. Reeves, and, as he declared to his friends afterward, he "couldn't stand for it."

WORKMEN HAVE FIGHT; PAY FINE AND COSTS

Toni Rossi and Paul Varos, two plate glass workers, got into a mixup yesterday and the one who was worsted called the police, who took both men in tow. Each posted a forfeit for his appearance before the burgess last night Burgess Risbeck learned at the hearing that the vanquished started the scrap, so he assessed each $1 fine and costs which were paid.

Clawson

Word has been received here of the death in Monroe Wis., of P. J. Clawson, Esq., 71 years old, the uncle of J. L. Reeves, of Fallowfield avenue and Mrs. E. M. Chalfant, of Washington avenue. He died following a second operation for cancer. Mr. Clawson was a former Pennsylvanian, going west in 1851.

Prominent Couple Surprise Friends

Without Telling Their Intentions They Slip Away and Get Married

Two prominent young people of Charleroi surprised their friends yesterday by slipping away quietly to Wellsburg, W. Va., where they were married. The bride was Miss Lois Patton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Patton of Washington avenue, and the groom is Arthur W. Miksch, son of W. A. Miksch, superintendent of the decorating department of the Macbeth-Evans glass factory. The young couple telephoned the news of their marriage from Pittsburg last evening, and stated they expected to return home today. They have hosts of friends who are awaiting them to extend congratulations and good wishes.

FAMILIES UNITED IN REUNION

Connections of Sphars, Carsons and Scotts Hold Pleasant Meeting

WERE PIONEER SETTLERS

The Sphars, Carsons and Scotts held the reunions of the families in Eldora Park yesterday, about 200 being present. The spirit of the old time social with a chicken dinner prevailed and the ladies provided quite an elaborate repast of other delicies.

The younger set amused themselves by shooting the bamboo slide and riding the roller coaster cars. The older set indulged in reminiscenses of the doings of the pioneers.

A communication from Rev. Samuel Spar Laws, D.D., L. L.D., of Washington, D. C. offering his parlors for an association meeting was received by the Sphars. Dr. Laws is a scientist of note, and was for 12 years president of the Missouri State University. He is a grandson of "Uncle Johnny Sphar" a patriarch who lived for six years more than a century.

The Sphars voted to hold their next annual meeting at Eldora Park on the last Thursday of August in 1911. The Scott and Carson reunion will be held on the second Saturday of September in the woodland of Joseph Carson. Both associations appointed committees to co operate in arranging a neighborhood harvest home or picnic.

Will Close for Rally

Owing to the big demonstration to be held here Saturday, September 3, the three banks will not open that evening from 8 to 9. Afterwards they will open Saturday evenings as usual.

Picnic and Outing.

A picnic and outing will be held for the benefit of the Monessen Charleroi Hospital at Eldora Park Wednesday, August 31. There will be sports of all kinds and dancing in the afternoon and evening

EVERYBODY URGED TO ATTEND PUBLIC MEETING IN BANK OF CHARLEROI HALL AT 8:30 O'CLOCK THIS EVENING

Object is To Make Final Arrangements for Big Blowout in Honor of J. K. Tener, Candidate for Governor

With the open meeting tonight of citizens at the Bank of Charleroi Hall at 8:30, the executive committee of the Charleroi Republican campaign club will bring its series of public meetings to a close. The meetings have been held at various central points in the territory ontiguous to Charleroi for the purpose of interesting the people in the big red fire demonstration to be held here when the Republican State committee will open Congressman J. K. Tener's Guternatorial campaign. All the other towns are now interested and hustling, and are making big preparations to make a showing in the parade, and it is now up to Charleroi to hold up its own end in the matter.

All who are interested in honoring a fellow townsman who has been accorded the high honor of the nomination for Governoor, are requested to attend the meeting tonight The demonstration is a neighborly affair regardless of politics, and what is desired now is to have Charleroi make good for the advertising that will be given the town if the meeting is the success that it can be if all unite in the effort. Everybody come to the meeting tonight.

COAL MINERS PROTESTING

Object to Increased Strike Assessment for Indefinite Fight

A dispatch from Pittsburg says that the action of the Indianapolis special convention in increasing the weekly assessments against the members of the United Mine Workers to $1 for the benefit of the striking Illinois miners has aroused a storm of protest among the miners in the Pittsburg district

It is said that Pittsburg district operators have only agreed to check off up to 50 cents a week and to go more than that would require a signed agreement from each miner before the sum could be deducted from his pay. Hundreds of miners have notified the operators that they will not pay an assessment of more than 25 cents a week as authorized some time ago.

Local delegates to the convention declared they voted for the erection of the compromise proposition to settle the Illinois strike, because the Illinois mine leaders had assured them that if they did, the Illinois operators would, within a week, sign the original proposition and the miners would gain a victory. The delegates say that the Illinois operators have since voted to continue the fight so that the strike bids fair to continue indefinitely.

Will Feed The Hungry

ORDER IS PROSPEROUS

Lady Maccabees Are Strong in Numbers and Financial Resources

At the regular meeting of the Lady Maccabees last night new candidate were initiated and taught the beautiful teaching of the order which is composed entirely of women. The L. O. T. M. have been adding new Hives until the order has today 2,749 with a membership of 154,000 and an emergency fund of $4 339,800 with an annual interest of $173,592. Since the order was started $7,851,396 has been paid out in benefits which speaks well for the order and also shows that ladies can do things when they want to.

Charleroi Hive has increased its membership in the past few months from 58 to a total of 80. The ladies of this hive have accepted an invitation to visit Mt. Washington Hive on Thursday evening, September 1, All those who desire to go will meet at the corner of Fifth street and McKean avenue at 5:30. There will be a practice of the guards on the new ritual on Monday evening, August 29, in P. H. C. Hall, to which all members are requested to come.

FROM MEN WHO KNOW

What business men and bankers have said over their own signatures about the Douglas College Graduates. A few extracts from their letters. We have the originals and many others on file in the office.

"Mr. J. B. Hooper, upon graduating from your Business College, entered our employ as bookkeeper about two years ago. His ability to handle the work has been of such a high standard that he was recently appointed secretary of our company."

"Mr. Roy S Trenberth is now in this bank's employ as teller and bookkeeper. His work from the beginning has been very satisfactory in every respect."

For about twelve years we had in our employ at all times two and sometimes three of the graduates of your college as stenographer and typewriter: and they have always proved in all ways and by all odds, the best fitted of any we have ever employed."

"I can heartily recommend your institution to any one wishing to take a business course, not only for the high standard of subjects taught, but also for the broadening influence your courses afford."

"Mr. J. B S. , upon graduating from your college, entered our employ about a year ago. His ability to handle the work and his integrity has been of such a high standard that he was recently appointed Assistant Paymaster of our company. This record speaks well for the training received at the Douglas Business College."

CALIFORNIA BOYS WILL BE HERE IN FORCE SEPT. 3

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night Starts Ball Rolling

COMMITTEE TO PUSH WORK

Special Train Possible To Take People Back At An Early Hour

Another encouraging meeting was held at California last night where the executive committee of the Charleroi Republican club met with a number of citizens and Republican workers of the normal town. The meeting was held at the real estate office of T. J. Underwood, and the object and purpose explained and discussed at the meetings held at other places. Various expressions were heard from those present, and a large degree of enthusiasm was manifested for the big red fire demonstration here September 3 before the meeting closed

Action was taken by the appointment of a committee composed of F. G. Latta, A. H. Lamb and Geo. Dewar, to confer with the precinct chairmen and call a meeting later for the purpose of making arrangements to form a division for the parade to be held here. The matter of a special train back at 11 o'clock that evening was discussed, and W. W. Jimeson, chairman of the transportation committee, said that if 300 or 400 people could be secured to attend they could get the train. He was assured that more than that number was likely to attend, and with these facilities an immense turnout may be expected. Efforts will be made at [illegible] and California will make a big showing in the parade when the State campaign is opened.

Advices from Pittsburg are to the effect that Mayor Magee is working hard to get the Americus Club together to attend in a body. He states that he expects at least 100 of the famous organization to be on hand, besides a large contingent of other Pittsburg Republicans.

At Washington arrangements have been made for a round trip fare over the street car line of $1, and County Chairman McClay expects to bring over from 300 to 500 people to the rally. S. C. Todd has received word that a special train may be run from the Beaver valley, and several hundred will likely be on hand from that section.

Car Wrecks Stable

Spreading rails caused one of the big palace cars northbound, on the Pittsburg and Charleroi line to jump the track at West Monongahela yesterday. It crashed into a stable belonging to John Noble close by the track completely demolishing the structure. Forty passengers were abroad, and two were slightly injured.

KU-KLUX TO INVADE CHARLEROI

Monongahela's Ghostly Clan to Lead Their Marching Host Here

CLUB HAS NOTED RECORD

Monongahela expects to send the largest delegation in the valley to Charleroi on Saturday September 3rd to attend the opening of the Republican State Campaign and to this end extensive preparations are being made in that city. The various committes appointed at the meeting last Monday evening are hard at work and the arrangements are fast shaping themselves.

The transportation committee, of which Ex President of Councils John P. N. Coulter, is chairman has made arrangements with the Pittsburg Railways company for the transportation of the large crowd and it is the expectation of the committee and the street car company that at least five hundred will go from this city. The committee held a meeting at the Hotel Glasser Wednesday ight, when the various details were gone over and they will make a thorough report at the general meeting which will be held in city hall this evening

The band committee of which Ex-Councilman Harry R. Downer is chairman, held a meeting Wednesday night and decided to hire the Monongahela Military Band, The Union and the Eckel's Drum corps. These three organizations will be distributed advantageously through the line and will furnish plenty of music.

The various other committees are hard at their work and the result is sure to be credit to every committeemen and a wonderful advertisement for old Monongahela.

Many special features will be sprung about the last moment and plenty of amusement and variety is expected to be woven into the affair The Ku Klux Klan, composed of several hundred of the towns most representative citizens, will be in the line, headed undoubtedly by Ex Mayor and Squire Richard L. Elwood.

Other features will enliven the occasion and every voter of the town who is not confined to bed is expected to be in the line. It is stated at the down river city that those who do not attend will be conspicuous by their absence.

Time to Wake Up

Pittsbrug has awakened to the fact that the city needs more diversified manufactories in order to keep pace with the growth and development of its contemporaries. The returns of the last census were both a disappointment and a revalation. They showed that while Pittsburg figures as a great manufacturing center for raw materials, it is not turning these materials into finished prducts, and that the growth of the city has not kept pace with the opportunities. The increase in population was away below what was expected, and the trend of manufacturing has been away from instead of to the city. Now Pittsburg is waking up, and a movement is being organized to go after the small and diversified industries that make up a prosperous aggregate.

Charleroi may well profit by this experience. The growth and progress of our town has been founded chiefly on two large industrises—the manufacture of glass and coal mining. While the one is holding its own, and possibly increasing at times, the other under present operations is gradually diminishing. The working out of the lower Vesta mine is an example of this. A few years ago this mine employed as many as eight hundred people all of whom lived within two or three miles of Charleroi and did the greater part of their trading here. Now the mine is so worked out that the force is insignificent compared with the population of the past. This is one of the reasons why many people think the town is not so good in a business way as it used to be. At the present time if the population continues to increase we will get more people here than the present industries will warrant, both in a business way and in the matter of labor employment. What is needed is more concerns that will produce and employ labor. It is not necessary to try to land the mammoth concerns. That is what Pittsburg has depended upon with the result that the small manufactories have gone to the smaller cities many of which are crowding Pittsburg hard in the matter of general activity.

This is a matter that should be kept in mind constantly. It is not the big concern that is the most important. A multitude of the little fellows is better, as a stringency or depression is not then apt to be so disastrous.

Fire Fighting Facilaties

The recent call for help from the Charleroi Volunteer Fire department by Stockdale citizens suggests an idea for fire protection which might be easily adopted by towns that have no water works or facilities for fighting fires. That is the use of chemical carts, which are not so expensive but what any borough could equip itself with one or more, and which would render most efficient service and afford great protection beside. Towns like Stockdale, Speers, Elco and hamlets of similar size should take steps at once to afford this protection.

When the Charleroi firemen started for Stockdale all the equipment they could take for use there was six chemical hand outfits beside buckets and axes. Though they did not have opportunities to use them the chemical apparatus could have performed effective service. With two or three chemical hand carts the Stockdale citizens might have prevented some of the damage done by the fire this week. The ratio of effectiveness of chemcal apparatus is one to forty. Charleroi has a chemical wagon drawn by horses that can be used where it is not necessary to turn on water and where water cannot be obtained. These outfits can be procured to conform any condition, and they are most effectively where other facilities are lacking.

CHARLEROI MAN WOULDN'T STAND FOR "REBEL TALK"

Speaks Out in Meeting at Moose Convention in Baltimore

OBJECTS TO STATEMENTS

Declares He Will Take the Matter Up With Supreme Officials

"I didn't come to this convention to hear such rebel talk, and I don't propose to listen to it" shouted J. L. Reeves of Charleroi in the national convention of the Order of Moose in Baltimore yesterday. Mr. Reeves, who is a member of the undertaking firm of Reeves and Reeves, is representing the Charleroi lodge of the order of Moose at the Baltimore convention, and his wrathful exclamation was prompted when a spokesman for the Clarksburg, West Virginia, lodge was presenting a gavel to the Baltimore lodge made out of a bedpost from Stonewall Jackson's old home

The speech was being made by E. J. Henning, a delegate from the Milwaukee, Wis., lodge, and some eulogistic remarks concerning the great Confederate general and the cause be represented, executed the fire of the Charleroi man.

Instantly there was a hubub in the convention over Mr. Reeves' interruption, with cries of "Sit down" and "Put him out!" but the Charleroi man was insistent and stood by his colors "I'm a northern man!" he shouted," and protest against dragging such talk into this meeting!" Finally the din became so great that Mr. Reeves could no longer be heard, and he wrathfully stalked out of the hall, declaring that he would not let the matter drop but would appeal his case to the supreme lodge of the organization

"I shall take it up to the supreme officers," declared Mr. Reeves. "It is a matter that calls for their consideration."

One of the statements of Representatives Henning, the speaker, that Mr. Reeves objected to was this:

"The south fought for the same cause we Moose are fighting for today, and that is the protection of the white race." This was too revolutionary for Mr. Reeves, and, as he declared to his friends afterward, he "couldn't stand for it."

WORKMEN HAVE FIGHT; PAY FINE AND COSTS

Toni Rossi and Paul Varos, two plate glass workers, got into a mixup yesterday and the one who was worsted called the police, who took both men in tow. Each posted a forfeit for his appearance before the burgess last night Burgess Risbeck learned at the hearing that the vanquished started the scrap, so he assessed each $1 fine and costs which were paid.

Two prominent young people of Charleroi surprised their friends yesterday by slipping away quietly to Wellsburg, W. Va., where they were married. Miksch, superintendent of the decorating department of the Macbeth-Evans glass factory. The young couple telephoned the news of their marriage from Pittsburg last evening, and stated they expected to return home today. They have hosts of friends who are awaiting them to extend congratulations and good wishes.

FAMILIES UNITED IN REUNION

Connections of Sphars, Carsons and Scotts Hold Pleasant Meeting

WERE PIONEER SETTLERS

The Sphars, Carsons and Scotts held the reunions of the families in Eldora Park yesterday, about 200 being present. The spirit of the old time social with a chicken dinner prevailed and the ladies provided quite an elaborate repast of other delicies.

The younger set amused themselves by shooting the bamboo slide and riding the roller coaster cars. The older set indulged in reminiscenses of the doings of the pioneers.

A communication from Rev. Samuel Spar Laws, D.D., L. L.D., of Washington, D. C. offering his parlors for an association meeting was received by the Sphars. Dr. Laws is a scientist of note, and was for 12 years president of the Missouri State University. He is a grandson of "Uncle Johnny Sphar" a patriarch who lived for six years more than a century.

The Sphars voted to hold their next annual meeting at Eldora Park on the last Thursday of August in 1911. The Scott and Carson reunion will be held on the second Saturday of September in the woodland of Joseph Carson. Both associations appointed committees to co operate in arranging a neighborhood harvest home or picnic.

COAL MINERS PROTESTING

Object to Increased Assessment for Indefinite Fight

A dispatch from Pittsburg says that the action of the Indianapolis special convention in increasing the weekly assessments against the members of the United Mine Workers to $1 for the benefit of the striking Illinois miners has aroused a storm of protest among the miners in the Pittsburg district

It is said that Pittsburg district operators have only agreed to check off up to 50 cents a week and to go more than that would require a signed agreement from each miner before the sum could be deducted from his pay. Hundreds of miners have notified the operators that they will not pay an assessment of more than 25 cents a week as authorized some time ago.

Local delegates to the convention declared they voted for the erection of the compromise proposition to settle the Illinois strike, because the Illinois mine leaders had assured them that if they did, the Illinois operators would, within a week, sign the original proposition and the miners would gain a victory. The delegates say that the Illinois operators have since voted to continue the fight so that the strike bids fair to continue indefinitely.

FROM MEN WHO KNOW

What business men and bankers have said over their own signatures about the Douglas College Graduates. A few extracts from their letters. We have the originals and many others on file in the office.

"Mr. J. B. Hooper, upon graduating from your Business College, entered our employ as bookkeeper about two years ago. His ability to handle the work has been of such a high standard that he was recently appointed secretary of our company."

"Mr. Roy S Trenberth is now in this bank's employ as teller and bookkeeper. His work from the beginning has been very satisfactory in every respect."

For about twelve years we had in our employ at all times two and sometimes three of the graduates of your college as stenographer and typewriter and they have always proved in all ways and by all odds, the best fitted of any we have ever employed."

"I can heartily recommend your institution to any one wishing to take a business course, not only for the high standard of subjects taught, but also for the broadening influence your courses afford."

"Mr. J. B S. , upon graduating from your college, entered our employ about a year ago. His ability to handle the work and his integrity has been of such a high standard that he was recently appointed Assistant Paymaster of our company. This record speaks well for the training received at the Douglas Business College."

KU-KLUX TO INVADE CHARLEROI

CLUB HAS NOTED RECORD

Monongahela epxects to send the largest delegation in the valley to Charleroi on Saturday September 3rd to attend the opening of the Republican State Campaign and to this end extensive preparations are being made in that city. The various committes appointed at the meeting last Monday evening are hard at work and the arrangements are fast shaping themselves.

The transportation committee, of which Ex President of Councils John P. N. Coulter, is chairman has made arrangements with the Pittsburg Railways company for the transportation of the large crowd and it is the expectation of the committee and the street car company that at least five hundred will go from this city. The committee held a meeting at the Hotel Glasser Wednesday ight, when the various details were gone over and they will make a thorough report at the general meeting which will be held in city hall this evening

The band committee of which Ex-Councilman Harry R. Downer is chairman, held a meeting Wednesday night and decided to hire the Monongahela Military Band, The Union and the Eckel's Drum corps. These three organizations will be distributed advantageously through the line and will furnish plenty of music.

The various other committees are hard at their work and the result is sure to be credit to every committeemen and a wonderful advertisement for old Monongahela.

Many special features will be sprung about the last moment and plenty of amusement and variety is expected to be woven into the affair The Ku Klux Klan, composed of several hundred of the towns most representative citizens, will be in the line, headed undoubtedly by Ex Mayor and Squire Richard L. Elwood.

Other features will enliven the occasion and every voter of the town who is not confined to bed is expected to be in the line. It is stated at the down river city that those who do not attend will be conspicuous by their absence.

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night Starts Ball Rolling

COMMITTEE TO PUSH WORK

Special Train Possible To Take People Back At An Early Hour

Another encouraging meeting was held at California last night where the executive committee of the Charleroi Republican club met with a number of citizens and Republican workers of the normal town. The meeting was held at the real estate office of T. J. Underwood, and the object and purpose explained and discussed at the meetings held at other places. Various expressions were heard from those present, and a large degree of enthusiasm was manifested for the big red fire demonstration here September 3 before the meeting closed

Action was taken by the appointment of a committee composed of F. G. Latta, A. H. Lamb and Geo. Dewar, to confer with the precinct chairmen and call a meeting later for the purpose of making arrangements to form a division for the parade to be held here. The matter of a special train back at 11 o'clock that evening was discussed, and W. W. Jimeson, chairman of the transportation committee, said that if 300 or 400 people could be secured to attend they could get the train. He was assured that more than that number was likely to attend, and with these facilities an immense turnout may be expected. Efforts will be made at once to work up an organization and California will make a big showing in the parade when the State campaign is opened.

Advices from Pittsburg are to the effect that Mayor Magee is working hard to get the Americus Club together to attend in a body. He states that he expects at least 100 of the famous organization to be on hand, besides a large contingent of other Pittsburg Republicans.

At Washington arrangements have been made for a round trip fare over the street car line of $1, and County Chairman McClay expects to bring over from 300 to 500 people to the rally. S. C. Todd has received word that a special train may be run from the Beaver valley, and several hundred will likely be on hand from that section.

Car Wrecks Stable

Spreading rails caused one of the big palace cars northbound, on the Pittsburg and Charleroi line to jump the track at West Monongahela yesterday. It crashed into a stable belonging to John Noble close by the track completely demolishing the structure. Forty passengers were abroad, and two were slightly injured.

Time to Wake Up

Pittsburg has awakened to the fact that the city needs more diversified manufactories in order to keep pace with the growth and development of its contemporaries. The returns of the last census were both a disappointment and a revelation. They showed that while Pittsburg figures as a great manufacturing center for raw materials, it is not turning these materials into finished products, and that the growth of the city has not kept pace with the opportunities. The increase in population was away below what was expected, and the trend of manufacturing has been away from instead of to the city. Now Pittsburg is waking up, and a movement is being organized to go after the small and diversified industries that make up a prosperous aggregate.

Charleroi may well profit by this experience. The growth and progress of our town has been founded chiefly on two large industrises—the manufacture of glass and coal mining. While the one is holding its own, and possibly increasing at times, the other under present operations is gradually diminishing. The working out of the lower Vesta mine is an example of this. A few years ago this mine employed as many as eight hundred people all of whom lived within two or three miles of Charleroi and did the greater part of their trading here. Now the mine is so worked out that the force is insignificant compared with the population of the past. This is one of the reasons why many people think the town is not so good in a business way as it used to be. At the present time if the population continues to increase we will get more people here than the present industries will warrant, both in a business way and in the matter of labor employment. What is needed is more concerns that will produce and employ labor. It is not necessary to try to land the mammoth concerns. That is what Pittsburg has depended upon with the result that the small manufactories have gone to the smaller cities many of which are crowding Pittsburg hard in the matter of general activity.

This is a matter that should be kept in mind constantly. It is not the big concern that is the most important. A multitude of the little fellows is better, as a stringency or depression is not then apt to be so disastrous.

Fire Fighting Facilaties

The recent call for help from the Charleroi Volunteer Fire department by Stockdale citizens suggests an idea for fire protection which might be easily adopted by towns that have no water works or facilities for fighting fires. That is the use of chemical carts, which are not so expensive but what any borough could equip itself with one or more, and which would render most efficient service and afford great protection beside. Towns like Stockdale, Speers, Elco and hamlets of similar size should take steps at once to afford this protection.

When the Charleroi firemen started for Stockdale all the equipment they could take for use there was six chemical hand outfits beside buckets and axes. Although they did not have opportunity to use them the chemical apparatus could have performed effective service. With two or three chemical hand carts the Stockdale citizens might have prevented some of the damage done by the fire this week. The ratio of effectiveness of chemcal apparatus is one to forty. Charleroi has a chemical wagon drawn by horses that can be used where it is not necessary to turn on water and where water cannot be obtained. These outfits can be procured to conform any condition, and they are most effectively where other facilities are lacking.
